

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

to the SECRETARIAL COURSE of the

International Young Men's Christian Association Training School

SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

N. B.—The office of General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association requires such varied and peculiar gifts and involves so great responsibility, that frank and prompt answers to all these questions will be very serviceable and highly appreciated.

1. Present date May 7, 1914
2. Name in full Max Yergan
3. Address Shaw University
4. Where born? Raleigh N.C.
5. Date of birth (year, month and day) Aug. 15, 1893
6. Married? Not
7. If so, have you children, and how many?
8. What educational advantages have you had? College
9. In what lines of business have you engaged? No special business
Vacation work in hotel
10. Give names and addresses of last two employers, and length of service with each Mr. Albert
D. Carden, Virginia Apts. Virginia Ave Atlantic City
11. Are we at liberty to write them regarding your business qualifications? Yes Richard Kennard " " "
12. Have you good health? Yes If not, state your trouble
13. Why do you desire to enter the General Secretaryship? Because it offers a good opportunity for Christian work!
14. Do you intend to make the Secretaryship a permanent work? Yes
15. What is the object of the Young Men's Christian Association? To help to develop men spiritually, physically, and intellectually
16. State the relation of the Association to the Church? The closest relation should exist between the association and the Church. They should both work together for one cause.
17. How long since you entered upon the Christian life? five years
18. Of what Church are you a member, and when did you unite with it? Presbyterian
19. What offices have you held in the Church or Sunday School? Teacher and Superintendent

* If the applicant is a graduate of a college or high school, he will be required, upon entering, to show his certificate of graduation; if not, please state what schools have been attended, and length of attendance at each.

20. What religious meetings have you conducted? Y. M. C. A. meetings, Church and college prayer meetings.
21. What experience in teaching a Young Men's Bible Class? Two years in a boys class
22. How long have you systematically studied the Bible? five years
23. What experience have you had in dealing with inquirers, and where? During revivals, personal work, in Sunday School class, and Y. M. C. A.
24. Can you point to instances where you believe you have been used in leading men to Christ? I am quite sure
25. What experience have you had in public speaking? Debating, oratorical contests
26. How long a member of the Y. M. C. A., and where? four years at Shaw University
27. What offices have you held in the Association? Chairman new Student committee, Community Service, religious meeting, President
28. On what committees have you served? Memberships, Social, Finance
29. What Association publications have you read? North American Student Association men
30. Do you read "Association Men"? Yes
31. What Y. M. C. A. conventions or conferences have you attended? Bible Institutes, Student conferences at King's Mt. U. C.
32. What first called your attention to the School? Was directed by International Secretary
33. When do you desire to enter the School? Next Sept.
34. What course do you propose to take? Secretarial
35. How long do you expect to remain at the School? Two years, if one is not sufficient
36. Have you resources with which to pay all your expenses? No, not entirely
37. If not, to what extent will it be necessary for you to help yourself? about two thirds
38. Please send us your photograph.
39. Give names and addresses of two Christian business men who are well acquainted with you, and (if possible) conversant with the work of the General Secretaryship and its needs. Mr. C. E. Lightner, N. East St. Raleigh N.C. Mr. Spencer, Boylan Pease Co. Raleigh N.C.

Return this blank, when filled, to L. L. Doggett, President, International Y. M. C. A. Training School, Springfield, Mass.
In order to defray the expense of investigation, each applicant must return with this blank TWENTY CENTS in stamps.